SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2017
The Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners of St. Michael Parish,

We have all been watching with anxious concern for the people whose lives have been devastated by Hurricane Harvey. While the recovery efforts are just beginning, it is expected that this will take years. Many government and social aid agencies, including Catholic Charities USA, are working tirelessly to bring comfort and relief to millions of people. In a letter sent to the clergy of the Diocese of Columbus, Deacon Thomas Berg, Chancellor, stated:

In times of tragedy, we are reminded that the Church is always a primary source of healing and peace. However, as is so often the case, the Church itself in these regions is both a source of help and aid as well as a victim. Many of the Churches will be damaged and their resources depleted, which makes it more difficult to fulfill the mission of providing aid, comfort, and the pastoral outreach needed (Letter August 29, 2017).

It is with this in mind that the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has requested that a special collection be taken up at the direction of each Diocesan Bishop for those affected by this disaster. The funds raised “will be used to support efforts of Catholic Charities USA and other Catholic agencies as they reach out to provide humanitarian aid in Texas and other affected parts of the Gulf Coast region” (Ibid).

While it is suggested to take up the collection the weekend of September 9-10, Pastors have been given discretion to choose another suitable weekend. I am therefore asking that the collection be taken up the weekend of September 16-17. This collection will take place after Communion and will be handled in the usual manner as directed by the Diocese. If you wish to make a donation by check through this collection, please make your check out to St. Michael Parish and write “Hurricane Harvey Relief” on the memo line and place it in the second collection. In order to ensure that this collection remains separate from the regular collection, please do not place donations for this in the regular collection basket. Thank you all in advance for your generosity!

Thanks, also to everyone who supported the Parish Festival on Labor Day Weekend. While the weather was not ideal on Friday and Saturday, the turnout was still pretty good, considering. Sunday, of course, was perfect and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves! God bless you all! Can’t wait for next year! (Well, actually I am sure we can as we are all tired, but you know what I mean!) ☺

God bless,
Fr. Anthony A. Dinovo, Jr.
Pastor

"You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel." – EZEKIEL 33:7

Many of us are generous with our gifts.

However, how often is our generosity at the minimum level required?

We do just enough or give just enough.

Remember, the Lord calls us to be generous with all the gifts He has given us, to grow them and return them with increase.

Prayer of the Faithful

That we go beyond the minimum required and give generously in proportion to what God has given each of us.

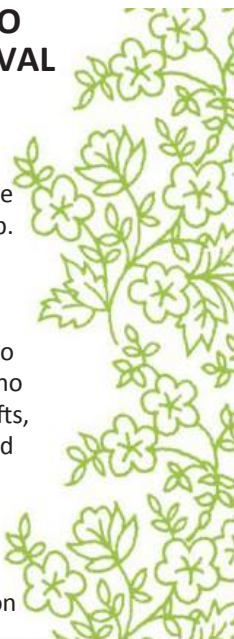

Parish School of Religion - PSR Update

- As many families are aware, PSR had originally been scheduled to start Sunday, September 10th.
- Due to asbestos abatement construction at the school, the start date for school has been delayed, which has then delayed the start of PSR. The deadline has been extended, so please continue to send in your PSR Registration forms.
- A new start date for PSR has not yet been decided, but it is hoped to be the first of October.
- Once a new start date has been decided, it will be announced in several different ways – via the church website at www.saintmichael-cd.org (click Evangelization, then click Parish School of Religion then click around on the different links to find the information you seek).
- The webpage will always have the most up-to-date information available.
- Announcements will also be made via the church bulletin and the digital information screen located in Marian Hall.
- They will be able to send updates via email to families once PSR Staff are able to access the computers with their database information on it.
- If you have any questions about the costs, the forms, the calendar – please visit the website as all of that information is found there.
- For information specific to your family or your registration, please email Religious Education Department at religioused@saintmichael-cd.org, but note that there may be a significant delay for a response as staffing is very limited and does not currently have access to the information you may be inquiring about. (The Parish Office does not have any information regarding PSR, costs, forms, your child's records, start date – that can all be found on the parish website.)
- The delay is not expected to affect the dates for First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion or Confirmation. Your patience is greatly appreciated as we work through this and know that we will keep you updated as more information becomes available.

THANK YOU TO ALL THE FESTIVAL VOLUNTEERS.

We would like to take this time to express our gratitude for your stewardship. The Festival was a success because of your hard work. We would also like to thank all of those who worked multiple shifts, stayed late, and filled in on empty spots. Lastly, we would like to thank the Festival Committee for all their dedication and countless hours.

- Stop in the Sacristy 10-15 minutes before Mass and find a member of the Clergy. (If you're not sure where the Sacristy is, please ask an Usher, they'll be happy to assist you.)
- Let the Clergy member (priest or deacon) know that you will be needing a low-gluten host.
- Find a seat on the right side of the church (when facing the Altar), affectionately known as the "Joseph Side."
- Follow the Communion line as you usually would.
- The Clergy or Extraordinary Minister will have the Host in a special pyx (a small container) attached to the main ciborium (the container holding the Hosts). See photo.
- When you approach the minister, just indicate by pointing to the pyx that contains the low-gluten host.
- The Clergy or Extraordinary Minister will hold the Host up and say "The Body of Christ," and then will place it in your palm once you respond "Amen." Immediately consume the Host and follow the Communion line as usual.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call the Parish Office at 614-885-7814, Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

October through May, we will show a video series Bible Study by Scott Hahn titled, "The Bible and the Virgin Mary." This is a Scripture guided study to grow closer to God by the example of His mother. There is no prep work prior to each study so one can benefit from coming once or to every session. Meeting twice a month on Tuesdays, from 7:30-9:00 p.m.

WOMEN OF ST. MICHAEL – FRIENDSHIP BY CANDLELIGHT

Women of St. Michael, you are invited to come and listen to coauthors, Emily Jaminet and Michele Faehnle, of The Friendship Project! Benefit from an evening of fellowship as you grow spiritually with friends, while reflecting on The Friendship Project. Michele Faehnle and Emily Jaminet will kickoff the evening sharing insights from the book to develop deep, meaningful relationships, to care for others and be cared for, and to deepen your Catholic faith. Not only will you be drawn closer to friends both new and old, but you will also be reminded how these friendships – and the virtues you practice to nurture them – draw you closer to God. This event will be held at St. Michael Church, Marian Hall, on September 20, from 7:00-9:00 p.m. Please RSVP to Chrissy Wilson at (614) 314-8482 or Emily Mauro at (614) 403-5942.

AROUND THE PARISH

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? OR DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS?

Has faith lead you to ask the question, how can I best serve God and do His will?

Being Catholic is a universal call to holiness. Holiness is growing close to God through your faith which you believe and live in your daily life. Catholics are able to actively participate in the sacramental life of the Church. A Church, which was founded by Jesus Christ, and 2,000 years later remains guided by the Holy Spirit. It is a Church built on Scripture and Tradition.

How do I get started?

By attending RCIA – Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. RCIA is a preparatory time, which someone who prompted by the Spirit, feels called to become Catholic, receives teachings and instructions on the Catholic Faith. It is fun and informative at the same time. Everyone is welcome and there is absolutely no obligation to join the Church.

What's it like?

Setup in an informal group format, we will cover a variety of topics, areas for discussion, as well as many different speakers and teachers who provide a well-rounded introduction to the faith. It culminates by being initiated into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil Mass, with Baptism, Eucharist and Confirmation.

When does RCIA begin?

Classes began on September 13, 2017, but it's not too late for you to join us! We meet from 7:00-9:00 p.m., in the Upper Meeting Room (just follow the signs), where we are just getting to know each other in preparation for those who are interested in becoming Catholic, and for those have been baptized and are looking to receive instructions on Initiation and bring them into Full Communion with the Church.

For registration, please check the parish website at <https://www.saintmichael-cd.org/evangelization/rcia/>, contact the Parish office at 614-885-7814, or email Fr. Tim Lynch, Director of RCIA, at tlynch@saintmichael-cd.org.

HURRICANE HARVEY COLLECTION – SEPTEMBER 16/17

Over the past few weeks, we have been witnessing the devastation caused in Texas and other parts of the Gulf Coast region caused by Hurricane Harvey. The recovery is expected to take years, and many government and social aid agencies, including Catholic Charities USA, are already working tirelessly to bring comfort and relief to the millions of people affected by this disaster.

With this in mind, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has requested, and Bishop Campbell has approved, a special collection from the Diocese of Columbus for those affected by Hurricane Harvey. These funds will be used to support the efforts of Catholic Charities USA and other Catholic agencies as they reach out to provide humanitarian aid in Texas and other affected parts of the Gulf Coast region.

This collection will be taken up here in at St. Michael on the weekend of September 16/17, 2017, after our regular collection.
