FEBRUARY 17, 2019 SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Blessed are you when people hate you,... exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man."

(Luke 6:22)

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time, the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

PRAYER OF THE PEOPLE:

That we may eagerly respond, "Here I am, Lord," whenever we hear God call upon us to be His hands, feet and voice here on earth.

FORMED

PRO-LIFE CORNER

In the Pro-Life Movement, a commonly asked question deals with a person's quality of life. What if my baby is handicapped? Why make my terminally ill mother suffer any longer? To answer questions like these, we must first understand the Catholic Church's teaching on suffering. Consider the following quote:

"Christianity's view of suffering is distinctively its own. Jesus Christ, who went about consoling and healing the suffering, also taught that it is good to suffer: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted" (Mt 5:3-4). He Himself freely accepted a miserable death as if it were necessary to accomplish the work He had set out to do. He told His followers that they must find a similar place for suffering in their lives. Why? Because "whoever would save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it" (Mt 16:24-25).

For parents with a serious prenatal diagnosis, visit www.benotafraid.net, and for questions about end-of-life decisions, visit www.catholicendoflife.org.
