JULY 19, 2020 16TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom."

(Matthew 13:24, 37-38)

As children of God, we are all "good seeds." We are blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God's plan when we spend time in prayer every day, use our skills to help others, and share our financial gifts to help build God's kingdom on earth. Through our example of gratitude and generosity we sow "good seeds" on earth and ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

Over the next several months the respect life corner will focus on quotes from Pope St. John Paul II's encyclical, Evangelium Vitae. "We are called to express wonder and gratitude for the gift of life and to welcome, savour and share the Gospel of life not only in our personal and community prayer, but above all in the celebrations of the liturgical year. Particularly important in this regard are the Sacraments, the efficacious signs of the presence and saving action of the Lord Jesus in Christian life. The Sacraments make us sharers in divine life, and provide the spiritual strength necessary to experience life, suffering and death in their fullest meaning. Thanks to a genuine rediscovery and a better appreciation of the significance of these rites, our liturgical celebrations, especially celebrations of the Sacraments, will be ever more capable of expressing the full truth about birth, life, suffering and death, and will help us to live these moments as a participation in the Paschal Mystery of the Crucified and Risen Christ." ## How Does the Kingdom Come?

Reflection by Pope Francis

“Thy kingdom come,” Christians persistently repeat when they pray the “Our Father.” Jesus has come; but the world is still marked by sin, inhabited by many people who suffer, by people who do not want to reconcile and do not forgive, by war and many forms of exploitation. Let us think about child trafficking, for example. All these facts are proof that Christ’s victory has not yet been completely attained. Many men and women still live with closed hearts. It is above all in these situations that the second request of the “Our Father” emerges on the lips of Christians: “Thy kingdom come!”, which is like saying: “We need you, Father! We need you, Jesus. We need you, Lord, to be everywhere and for ever, in our midst!” “Thy kingdom come, may you be in our midst.”

We sometimes ask ourselves: why is this Kingdom so slow to come about? Jesus likes to speak of his victory in terms of parables. For example, he says that the Kingdom of God is similar to a field where weeds and good wheat grow together: the biggest mistake would be to immediately intervene, by uprooting from the world what appear to us to be invasive weeds. God is not like us. God is patient. It is not through violence that the Kingdom is established in the world: meekness is its means of propagation (cf. Mt 13:24-30).

The Kingdom of God is certainly a great strength, the greatest one there is, but not according to worldly criteria. This is why it never appears to have the absolute majority. It is like leaven that is kneaded with flour: it apparently disappears and yet, it is what makes the dough rise (cf. Mt 13:33). Or it is like a mustard seed, so small, almost invisible, which, however, carries within it nature’s most explosive force, and once fully grown, it becomes the largest tree in the garden (cf. Mt 13:31-32).

St. Mary Magdalene

Patron Saint of Sexual Temptation • July 12

Mary Magdalene was one of Jesus’ most faithful followers. According to the Bible, she had been a sinner and Christ drove the evil from her. Because of the Lord’s kindness, she completely transformed her way of life. Her thanks to Him were shown by her love and complete devotion to God. She was present at the Lord’s Passion and burial and was among the women who administered to Christ during His suffering and actually washed His feet with her hair. She was also the messenger of the good news of Jesus’ Resurrection. Mary Magdalene’s example of penitence has inspired Christians for centuries.

Prayer to St. Mary Magdalene

O faithful Mary Magdalene, you were so willing to atone for your sins, finding happiness and light through God. I entreat you to pray for me so that I may rid myself of wrongdoing. Pray that I remain true to God’s desire and keep my own desires pure. Ask our Father in Heaven to take away this temptation so that I may remain on the path of righteousness. Amen.
