JULY 26, 2020 17TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose." (Romans 8:28)

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

Over the next several months, the respect life corner will focus on quotes from Pope St. John Paul II's encyclical, Evangelium Vitae. "Where life is involved, the service of charity must be profoundly consistent. It cannot tolerate bias and discrimination, for human life is sacred and inviolable at every stage and in every situation; it is an indivisible good. We need then to "show care" for all life and for the life of everyone. Indeed, at an even deeper level, we need to go to the very roots of life and love."

John Paul II. Vatican. Evangelium Vitae (#2). 25 March 1995.

FORMED[®] PICK OF THE WEEK

This documentary follows the journey of several pilgrims who differ in culture and religious faith, united only by a mysterious attraction towards the same spiritual destination.

Over the lovely "Camino de Santiago," the Way of St. James, which is the ancient route leading from the Pyrenees to the famous and ancient shrine of Santiago de Compostela, this documentary follows the journey of several pilgrims who differ in culture and religious faith, united only by a mysterious attraction towards the same spiritual destination.

Across breathtaking landscapes, we experience a journey that is at once concrete, mystical and metaphorical in a continued alternation between past and present, between the history and legends that have fashioned the destiny of the Way of St. James. This ancient route that concludes at the shrine where St. James the Apostle is buried is the most famous Christian pilgrimage in the world. Now you can take this ancient journey through this beautifully produced film.

PART-TIME JOBS AVAILABLE AT ST. VINCENT DE PAUL THRIFT STORE

Your St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store is hiring! If you would like a job with a purpose, please think about joining the Thrift Store team! We are looking for part-time employees who are available to work 12-28 hours a week, with flexible 4-8 hour shifts as merchandise processors, register operators, and filling counters on the sales floor. If you like working with the public – our customers – we are looking for you to join our team! Stop by the Thrift Store at 5969 East Main Street, in Columbus, 43213 at the intersection of East Main and I-270 on the East Side. We're located in the Carnaby Shopping Center on the corner of East Main and McNaughten. You can fill out an application while you check out our store. Or call 614-377-1065 for more information. You can also download an application from our web site at <https://www.svdpthriftstores.com>. After you fill it out, you can scan it and send your application to our email address: colssvdpthriftstores@gmail.com.

If you haven't visited the Thrift Store yet, please come by and take a look. We think you'll be pleasantly surprised at the store and the merchandise we carry. And we know there's an excellent chance you will find a bargain! Most importantly, all profits will stay in the Columbus Diocese to support the work of St. Vincent de Paul.

Lessons About the Kingdom of Heaven

Reflection on Matthew 13:44-52

Today's Gospel concludes three weeks of readings from the 13th Chapter of Matthew's Gospel. Throughout these three weeks we have heard Jesus teaching crowds about the kingdom of heaven, and we have heard Jesus interpret some of his teachings for the disciples. In this week's Gospel, Jesus offers three more short parables.

The first two parables describe the great value of the kingdom of heaven. In the first parable, Jesus says that the kingdom of heaven is like a buried treasure that is worth possessing even if it means giving up everything else. In the second parable, Jesus proposes that the kingdom of heaven is like a pearl of great worth for which one will sell everything else to possess. These parables teach us that we are to place everything we value in the service of the pursuit of the Kingdom of God.

The third parable that Jesus proposes in today's Gospel is different from the first two, but it is reminiscent of the parable of the sower heard in last week's Gospel. The kingdom of heaven is compared to fishing with a wide net. After the fish have been collected, the good fish are kept and the bad fish are thrown away; so too, in the final judgment, will the wicked and the righteous be separated.

Today's Gospel concludes with a curious statement about the scribe who understands the kingdom of heaven. Here a metaphor is offered: this scribe is like the head of a household who "brings from his storeroom both the new and the old." The scribes referred to here are experts of Mosaic law. It is possible that Jesus is here instructing the early Christian community on how to proceed in the interpretation of Jewish law with respect to Jesus' "new" teaching. Jesus' teaching about the kingdom of heaven does not replace the Jewish tradition; it interprets it in a different light.

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Patron Saint of Retreats • July 15

Ignatius was the youngest son of a Spanish nobleman. As a youth, he was inflamed with the desire for the glories of knighthood so that he could do good deeds in the king's service. At age 29, he was seriously injured in battle and returned to his family home to convalesce, where he read the only two books available to him about the lives of Christ and of the Saints, the only books available to him. These books inspired his spiritual conversion. He studied for the priesthood and founded the Jesuits. As a student in Paris he drew a small band of friends to himself and directed them in extended prayer and meditation according to his Spiritual Exercises. St. Ignatius died in 1556 at the age of 65.

Prayer for Generosity by St. Ignatius

*Lord, teach me to be generous.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to ask for reward,
save that of knowing that I do your will.*
