AROUND THE PARISH

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

SEPTEMBER 13, 2020 24TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

"For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's." (Romans 14:8)

This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts that God has given us, especially our very own lives. Pray to God daily and ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

Lead Kindly Light

An influential teacher, a distinguished theologian, a man who endured many trials, a father of souls—Blessed John Henry Newman (1801 - 1890) remains as fresh and relevant today as he was during his lifetime. In this engaging film, Fr. Nicholas Schofield and Fr. Marcus Holden, hosts of several other Ignatius films, present the inspiring story of Newman's life and visit the places in England where he lived and worked.

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

Over the next several months, the Respect Life Corner will focus on quotes from Pope St. John Paul II's encyclical, Evangelium Vitae. "There can be no true democracy without a recognition of every person's dignity and without respect for his or her rights."

Nor can there be true peace unless life is defended and promoted. As Paul VI pointed out: "Every crime against life is an attack on peace, especially if it strikes at the moral conduct of people... But where human rights are truly professed and publicly recognized and defended, peace becomes the joyful and operative climate of life in society."<sup>137</sup>

"The 'people of life' rejoices in being able to share its commitment with so many others. Thus may the 'people for life' constantly grow in number and may a new culture of love and solidarity develop for the true good of the whole of human society."

John Paul II. Vatican. Evangelium Vitae (#2). 25 March 1995.
