AROUND THE PARISH

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

Next Sunday afternoon, we will begin the first phase of decorating. We will start with the outside lights and decorations, as well as setting up the indoor crèche. We will work in small groups while wearing masks and maintaining social distancing protocols. Those who are in the high-risk group are asked to refrain from volunteering.

Included in this bulletin, and on our parish website, are some Year End Contribution Ideas for St. Michael Parish and School. I know that this year has been challenging for many. But, if you are able, please consider the various needs of the parish and how you may best support our work in the fulfilling the mission Christ entrusted to us. Thank you so much for your generosity!

We have received another Grant from the Catholic Foundation for $3,000.00 for financial assistance for struggling parishioners as a result of the Pandemic. I thank the Foundation for making these funds available and those who have received them are grateful as well.

God bless,

Fr. Anthony A. Dinovo, Jr.
Pastor

CONGRATULATIONS ON THE BAPTISM OF AMBROSE BENEDICT LADUKE

OUR SYMPATHY TO THE FAMILIES OF GARY MICHAEL RYGG & DAWN TRUESDALE.

Help Needed to Sanitize the Church!

We are looking for volunteers to help sanitize the church after weekend Masses.

What does it entail?

It's easy! After Mass you'll meet in the back of the church where you'll find other volunteers, cleaning supplies, and instructions. Cleaning entails the spraying of pews, waiting 10 minutes and then wiping them down. It only takes about 20 minutes! We are looking for 5 volunteers per Mass.

Who can sign up?

You must be over 18 and under 70 and not in an at risk group to sign up.

How many times can I sign up?

You can sign up as many times as you'd like! For example, if you attend the same Mass every weekend you can sign up to sanitize after that Mass for multiple dates.

Search this link or scan the QR code to sign up today!

DECEMBER 6, 2020 SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT REFLECTION

And this is what he proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals." Mark 1:7 John the Baptist was considered by Jesus as one of the greatest human beings ever to walk the face of the Earth (see Matthew 11:11). Yet in the passage above, John states clearly that he is not even worthy to "stoop and loosen the thongs" of Jesus' sandals. This is humility to the greatest extent!

What made St. John the Baptist so great? Was it his powerful preaching? His dynamic and attractive personality? His way with words? His good looks? His numerous followers? Certainly it was none of the above. That which made John truly great was the humility with which He pointed everyone to Jesus.

One of the greatest human struggles in life is pride. We tend to want to draw attention to ourselves. Most people struggle with a tendency to tell others how good they are and why they are right. We want attention, recognition and praise. We often struggle with this tendency because self-elevation has a way of making us feel important. And such a "feeling" feels good, to an extent. But what our fallen human nature often fails to recognize is that humility is one of the greatest attributes we can have and is, by far, the greatest source of greatness in life.

Humility is found clearly in these words and actions of John the Baptist in the passage above. He knew who Jesus was. He pointed to Jesus and turned the eyes of his followers from himself to his Lord. And it is this act of pointing others to Christ that has the double effect of elevating him to a greatness that self-centered pride can never achieve.

What could be greater than the act of pointing others to the Savior of the World? What could be greater than helping others to discover their purpose in life by coming to know Christ Jesus as their Lord and Savior? What could be greater than exhorting others to a life of selfless surrender to the one and only God of mercy? What could be greater than elevating the Truth over the selfish lies of our fallen human nature?

Reflect, today, upon your calling in life to imitate the humility of John the Baptist. If you want your life to have true value and meaning, then use your life to elevate the Savior of the World to the greatest extent possible in the eyes of those around you. Point others to Jesus, make Jesus the central focus of your life and humble yourself before Him. In this act of humility, your true greatness will be discovered and you will find the central purpose of life.

My glorious Lord, You and You alone are the Savior of the World. You and You alone are God. Give me the wisdom of humility that I may dedicate my life to pointing others to You so that many will come to know You as their true Lord and God. I am not worthy of You, my Lord. Yet in Your mercy, You use me anyway. I thank You and dedicate my life to the proclamation of Your holy name. Jesus, I trust in You.
