"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many."
(Mark 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, OCTOBER 17TH, 2021

Real Presence, Real Future reflections: Serving by Letting Go
Deacon Jeff Carpenter, St. Bernadette, Lancaster

The apostles today are thinking about heaven but misapplying earthly logic. Like the Apostles, we too can crave places of honor and earthly things. But with God, we need to let go of these, especially as we plan for the future of our diocese. God, infinite source of love and dignity, is fully present to those who turn to him so to be His servants in this life. Serving God offers far more dignity than efforts to be earthly kings. We experience this dignity with the Real Presence in the Eucharist, through which, even with the tiniest fragments, we receive the full body, blood soul and divinity of Christ. For more about the life of faith and discipleship in the Diocese of Columbus, visit www.RealPresenceRealFuture.org.

PARISH HISTORY OCTOBER 17, 2021

Did You Know

June 2019 memories from a former student: "Hello St. Michael's! I just want to say how much I love the school. I was the youngest child of 4 children who went there. During my years of attending, I was assigned a pen pal in Oregon in 3rd grade with Mrs. Jacob. We sent letters to one another about our school week. Our daily life, our favorite things, how we vacationed, and other exciting things. I still remember writing letters and waiting for the day to hear from my pen pal. (I also remember feeling so excited that my pen pals name was Krista and mine was Kristi). Turns out Krista and I ended up friends! A friendship and experience that never would have happened without my family being blessed with attending the school. Krista is an accomplished woman who still values my friendship since the day it was created, just in the way I value her friendship. We did nothing out of the ordinary other than feel thankful for the school we went to for introducing us. I want to say thank you for everything I was taught. St. Michael's is an amazing school when my daughter turns of age, I hope to send her there. I am so thankful for those who taught me when I was there." – Kristi Gegas
