OCTOBER 31, 2021, THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

(Mark 12:33)

Of all the gifts that God gives us, the one He wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of our love for Him, not out of obligation. Using our talent in parish ministry and contributing money to support our parish mission is important, but it's more important to spend time in prayer with God daily and discern how He is calling us to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the visible ones, but the invisible ones like love, mercy and forgiveness.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

I would like to first take this opportunity to congratulate Fidel Pitones who has been accepted as a candidate in the Diaconate School of Theology for the Diocese of Columbus. Fidel, with his wife Andrea and their children, Gavrielle, Abby, Diego, and Mateo, have been long time active members of our parish and have been seen assisting and participating at a variety of parish events. Their children are all graduates of St. Michael School and remain connected to the life of the parish. We are proud that Fidel has been selected. The Rite of Candidacy for this year's deacon class will take place on December 5th at St. Joseph Cathedral. Fidel and his classmates will begin their official 3-year journey of formation and academic classes on January 7, 2022. Please pray for him and the 10 other men in our diocese who have been chosen for this great honor.

This week we welcomed Mr. Nicholas Sorrell to our staff. He will be working with Mr. Steve Moore, our Campus Facility and Safety Director, in a maintenance and custodial capacity for the parish and school. A member of St. Michael Parish, Mr. Sorrell comes to us with plenty of experience in his field, especially in his service to our country as a mechanic in the US Navy. Welcome Nicholas!!

Please be advised that scam emails, texts, and other fake communications still plague us. These scams have existed for many years and will most likely not go away anytime soon. These scammers often times will pretend to be Bishops or Priest/Pastors, including me. These messages can appear as one sent from a Gmail, Yahoo, or other domain name, instead of the Saintmichael-cd.org or Flocknote.com domain.

Please do not be fooled. If you have any doubts -- and you always should for these kinds of emails or text messages -- you can always verify the request through the regular contact information provided on the parish website.

In Christ,
Fr. Anthony A. Dinovo, Jr
Pastor

Real Presence, Real Future reflections: Loving Action

Alfred Akainyah, St. Anthony Parish & RPRF Commission Member

Our gospel message focuses on love: love for God, neighbor, and self. How do you understand love and who is a neighbor? How we understand love goes hand in hand with how we live our lives together, as a church community with our growing diversity. Our neighbor is anyone who needs our love and service, not just the one close to us. Like Jesus, let us have the loving hearts that reach out to others in a special way, bringing them closer to the church and community. When we love and act, Jesus comes to us.

To read more about how we are growing together in the life of faith and discipleship in the Diocese of Columbus, visit www.RealPresenceRealFuture.org.
