JANUARY 16, 2022 THE SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit."

(1 CORINTHIANS 12:7)

St. Paul tells us that God has blessed each of us for a reason. How has God blessed you? Are you using your gifts according to God's plan? How are you helping to build God's kingdom here on earth? Remember that if you don't do the work God planned for you, no one else can do it. Live the life God has intended for you. Take time to discern your charisms (gifts from the Holy Spirit). Experience the supernatural Peace and Joy God desires for each of us.

DEAR PARISHIONERS,

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to everyone who turned out to help decorate the Church and also to remove the decorations. We had a great turnout for both of these and your assistance truly helps us all to realize that our faith community is a great family of people. I look forward to more years ahead.

If you have been following the news in the Catholic world, you may have heard the term "synodality" being talked about. There has also been some confusion as to what exactly is meant by this term. As way of clarifying, while at the same time not attempting to diminish, I would like to offer the following article by Bishop Robert Barron that may help to explain, at least in part, what "synodality" is not: (<https://www.wordonfire.org/articles/barron/what-is-synodality/>). Happy reading!

In Christ,
Fr. Anthony Dinovo
Pastor

He dwells with us full of grace and truth. He restores morality, nourishes virtue, consoles the afflicted, strengthens the weak." (Pope Paul VI, Mysterium Fidei)
