

Elevari

Official Newsletter of High School Youth Ministry

Let's meet this Sunday after mass

I have always been fascinated with mountains. I've traveled to the Western part of the US many times and have seen some of the most beautiful mountain ranges. When I was thinking of a name for High School Youth Ministry, a former high schooler brought up a former name, Elevari. Thinking about it, I really liked the name. Elevari means "to be lifted up." Our spiritual life is able to be lifted up as high as the mountains, and more! Middle School Youth Ministry's name is The Adventurers. In the beginning, we want to explore and find new and intriguing things in life. In Elevari we want to go beyond what the world offers and strive for greatness. That means we need to go up the mountain with Jesus Christ.

Schedule

We meet every Sunday at 6 pm either outside or in the Upper Meeting Room

Topics

March 3: Evangelization

March 24: Good Friday

April 7: Resurrection

April 14: Moral Relativism

“THERE IS HOPE”

If high school youth ministry could be summed up in one word, I think it would be this, “hope.”

Yes, I know, all our hope is in Jesus Christ, but high schoolers are starting to figure out something. In a world where people tell you this and that or do this and that, it can really take a toll on someone’s perception of themselves. There truly is an identity crisis. Even though this might sound bleak, there are high schoolers who have figured something out and what they figured out is they are a beloved child of God.

There is hope among our high schoolers because it will be them who will remind us who we are and what we are made for.

The source and summit of our faith is the Holy Eucharist! When you can, go to the Eucharist Adoration on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 or go to the daily mass!

Our Blessed Mother always hears our prayers! Pray a Hail Mary to ask for her intercession or pray the Rosary!

“I am happy that you too, dear young people, are involved in this missionary outreach on the part of the whole Church. To make Christ known is the most precious gift that you can give to others.”

-Pope Benedict XVI,
World Youth Day 2013
