FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

He is RISEN!

In the midst of all the excitement over Easter and the Easter Octave, as well as our different classes of children in the parish preparing for retreats, pilgrimages, and first reception of the Holy Sacrament and Confirmation, the parish staff was hit with a sobering reality. Not everyone was here to celebrate. Early last week, our parish staff was hit with scams wherein third parties, scammers or bad actors, portrayed themselves as me, your pastor, seeking parish membership information. While some information, particularly names and emails, was taken, there has been a definite temptation to lose the spirit of the Resurrection over issues of scamming. Financial information was not obtained, nor at risk of being obtained, but concentrated efforts through scam emails were focused on parish staff. Our Diocesan IT staff, as well as legal Counsel, have been of great assistance to our parish staff, and I owe them a great deal of gratitude.

So many of our parishioners have been very vigilant in reading and re-reading emails and reporting those that are suspicious. I apologize for the time that many of our parishioners have had to invest in double-checking the authenticity of emails. Parish emails will always come from email accounts associated with the parish, such as "@saintmichael-cd.org" or "@Columbuscatholic.org." No official parish emails would come from a "@gmail.com" account. Please know that emails requesting gift cards from anyone on staff, but especially the priests and deacons, are all scams.

The Parish Office staff have been communicating regularly through the Flocknotes system. If you haven't received updated warnings from the parish, please consider signing up for the Flocknotes system. We use Flocknotes to communicate not only warnings, but also invitations to many amazing events and opportunities in the life of the parish.

Returning to a topic of great joy and excitement, we will welcome our Ordinary, Bishop Fernandes, to confer the Sacrament of Confirmation upon our candidates on Saturday, May 2nd. The Sacrament will be offered in the midst of the Saturday 4:00 p.m. Vigil Mass. This Holy Mass WILL BE VERY CROWDED! For those who may need a more regular Sunday Mass, I invite you to plan accordingly. Please pray for the over 70 children who are preparing to receive the Holy Sacrament of the Altar in Holy Communion for the first time on Saturday, May 9th.

May the glory of the Risen Lord be victorious over the darkness! AND... over all scammers!

Fr. Stash Dailey
